Shared Sports Facilities Policy

At Career Point University (CPU), we believe in holistic education that combines academic excellence with physical fitness and community engagement. Our campus sports facilities are open not only to our students and staff but also to the local community and nearby educational institutions, promoting inclusivity and a shared culture of wellness.

Community Access

- CPU offers free access to its sports facilities, subject to availability and prior booking.
- Facilities include football and cricket grounds, basketball and volleyball courts, badminton and tennis courts, an Indoor Games, and a gymnasium.
- Access is available for schools, colleges, and local organizations in coordination with the Sports Club.

Engagement and Events

- The University organizes inter-college tournaments, fitness drives, and community sports programs that encourage participation and teamwork.

Guidelines

- Users are expected to maintain discipline, cleanliness, and respect for university property and others.
- The University reserves the right to limit or reschedule access based on academic or maintenance needs.
