Notification

Constitution of Campus Accommodation Committee for Differently Abled Persons

The Campus Accommodation Committee for Differently Abled Persons is constituted to advocate for just, supportive, living, and learning conditions for disabled students and staff on campus. The Committee identifies and works to remove both physical and procedural barriers to participation. The Committee's work is fundamental to fostering an inclusive and supportive campus.

Purpose of the Committee

The Committee works to provide appropriate arrangements, services, and supportive infrastructure to differently abled persons. The Committee ensures that campus infrastructure is appropriately accessible and that any needed supportive services are provided promptly. The Committee also advocates for awareness of inclusive practices among the departments and students.

The Committee oversees accommodation arrangements, accessibility evaluations, and any changes that may be necessary in the hostels, classrooms, or common areas. Also, the Committee works with the departments to provide academic, mobility, and technical support as needed. Also, it may bring in experts or agencies to improve campus inclusiveness and service delivery.

Composition of the Committee
