Notification

Constitution of Equality, Diversity & Inclusion (EDI) Committee

Career Point University is dedicated to upholding an inclusive, respectful, and equitable environment for all members of the university community. To support this commitment, the University has established the EDI Committee, which is responsible for guiding institutional practices that promote fairness, respect, and equal access in both academic and administrative environments.

The Committee serves as a key body responsible for reviewing, recommending, and overseeing the implementation of policies that foster a campus culture where every individual—regardless of age, gender, disability, religion, race, marital status, refugee status, pregnancy, or personal circumstances—can fully participate and succeed.

The Committee works in coordination with all academic schools, administrative offices, support units, and student bodies of the University. It reviews and addresses matters related to admissions, staff and faculty recruitment, and campus accessibility, while also promoting anti-discrimination and inclusion across institutional practices. The Committee also examines complaints related to equality and inclusion and ensures appropriate follow-up.

Composition of the Committee

1. Dr. Meenakshi, Assoc. Prof. School of Basic and Applied Sciences, ----- Chairperson
2. Dr. Mahaveer Suman, Assoc. Prof. School of Agricultural Sciences, ----- Member
3. Dr. Anjali Ramaria, Asoc. Prof. School of Arts and Humanities -----Member

The EDI Committee is responsible for reviewing and updating the University's Equality, Diversity, and Inclusion framework. It further monitors the implementation of its recommendations and submits periodic reports to the competent authority for review and necessary action.

All discussions and decisions of the Committee must be treated with strict confidentiality. Members are expected to uphold the highest standards of integrity, avoid any conflicts of interest, and act fairly and impartially in all matters related to equality and inclusion.
