Organization of Public and Community oriented events by the Institution

The Institute hosts the following events open to the general public:

- Public lectures by invited experts and scholars
- Community educational programmes and awareness workshops
- Cultural events and celebrations promoting social and cultural exchange
- Seminars and conferences encouraging public participation
- Outreach programmes for schools, NGOs, and local communities

Objectives:

- Build good relations between the University and the community
- Share knowledge and research with the public
- Strengthen ties between the Institute and the wider community
- Spread awareness about education, culture, and social issues
- Promote learning for everyone, not just students
- Provide a platform for experts, students, and the public to interact
- Demonstrate the University's responsibility toward society
- Encourage cultural exchange and inclusion on campus

Access Control:

- Public entry is allowed in a restricted and organized manner for security and convenient reasons
- Prior registration or invitation is required
- When an event is important for the community, outsiders may be allowed to attend in a controlled and safe manner
- Such events can include cultural programmes, academic seminars, public lectures, or educational workshops
- Institutions organize these events to promote community engagement, learning, and cultural exchange
- Events are planned carefully to ensure safety and compliance with University rules
